

Hall of Fame Committee

Purpose: Receive nominations to the Hall of Fame from the general membership and to elect two or less inductees each year that have made outstanding contributions to the Weimaraner breed to the Weimaraner Club of America Hall of Fame.

Organization: The governing body of the Weimaraner Club of America Hall of Fame shall be the Hall of Fame Committee.

1. Appointees must be members in good standing with the Weimaraner Club of America.
2. The Chairperson shall be appointed annually by the Board of Directors.
3. Chairperson will have no voting power, but will be the director of activities.
4. The Chairperson will actually maintain the Hall of Fame records.
5. The Chairperson will maintain financial records for annual submission to the Board of Directors.
6. The Chairperson has the power to decide all ties.
7. Members shall be appointed for five year rotating terms by the Board of Directors, one member appointed each year. The geographical regions and areas of competition shall be fairly represented.
8. Nothing shall prevent a person from serving consecutive terms or from holding any other office while serving on this committee.
9. Should a member abstain from voting on a particular dog or be unable to vote on the year's slate, then the Chairperson shall vote in his place. Should two members be unable to vote, then the Chairman plus a past member of the committee, chosen by the Chairperson, shall vote instead.

Committee Chair Qualifications: Interest in and knowledge of the history of the Weimaraner in the United States. Ability to communicate with committee members and promote the program to the members. Ability to communicate by email.

Committee Responsibilities:

1. Follow the procedures described in the Hall of Fame guidelines and rules.
2. Notify the WCA National Office of the closing date for nominations so that the closing date can be listed in the Events Calendar in The Weimaraner Magazine.
3. On or before the second week following the close of nominations, the Chairperson shall submit to the committee the nominations for their consideration.
4. Investigate all nominees to the Hall of Fame and evaluate all information obtained. Each voting member of the committee shall make an in-depth examination of all nominees
5. On or before two weeks have elapsed since the mailing of the nominations, the committee members shall return to the Chairperson their yes/no vote on each nominee together with any additional information gathered by the member which might be pertinent to the election of nominees by the committee. (No effort should be made to rank the nominations. The decision to be made is whether each animal would be a worthy addition to the Hall of Fame.) A minimum of three “yes” votes shall be required for further consideration. If none have met this requirement, there shall be no inductees to the Hall of Fame for that year.

6. If there are more than two nominees receiving the minimum of three “yes” votes, they shall be resubmitted to the committee for their vote for the final two inductees.
7. On or before two weeks from receipt of the yes/no votes from the committee members, the Chairperson shall resubmit the final nominees to the committee for their vote for the two inductees. (Here is where the committee members will choose the two most worthy of the award year by ranking those dogs on the ballot.)
8. Ballots shall be mailed to the Chairperson BY RETURN MAIL.
9. Contact the owner(s) of those elected to the Hall of Fame and make arrangements to have them or their representative present at the National Specialty Banquet to receive the award.
10. Prepare the Hall of Fame awards for presentation to the owner(s) at the National Specialty Banquet.
11. Awards are to be presented at the National Specialty Banquet and results to be published in The Weimaraner Magazine after presentation at the National Specialty Banquet. (Notification to be mailed to the winners upon election; however results are to be kept secret until announced at the National Specialty Banquet.)
12. Results to be published annually in The Weimaraner Magazine:
 - a. Newly elected members
 - b. Complete Hall of Fame listing by year of induction (chronological order) in the June issue.
 - c. Closing date for nominations is to be included on the national calendar of events.
13. Complete information on each Hall of Fame member to be kept in a designated format by the Hall of Fame Chairperson.
14. Complete information on the Hall of Fame also to be kept by the Executive Secretary.
15. The Chairperson will maintain the Hall of Fame records.
