

Weimaraner Club of America, Inc.

On behalf of its Board of Directors and over 2,500 current active members, let me be one of the first to welcome you to membership in The Weimaraner Club of America!

We hope that this Handbook will serve to strengthen your bond with your Weimaraner and also serve as an important ongoing informational resource, providing insights into the many nuances and unique needs of this breed that we all love.

We have also outlined expectations of membership and we welcome your questions and observations as a new member with respect to any improvements that might be made to this Handbook.

We thank you, and your canine companion thanks you, for owning what we consider to be one of the most loyal, fascinating and intelligent dog breeds and thank you again for your WCA membership that is indicative of your singular commitment to responsible dog ownership.

With my very best regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Timothy C. Carwile
